Dedication

Because she can make the most reluctant boys and girls go to school and like it;

Because she can make the most indifferent pupil learn and remember what he has learned;

Because she can make every child in her class feel that he is important and a worth-while personality in his own right;

Because her teaching and example have inspired hundreds of boys and girls and made them love her as few teachers are ever loved--- the Seniors of 1948

affectionately dedicate their volume of

PROSCU

Class of 1948; a curtain slowly rises. An arch appears with the inscription, "The Class of 1948." Beyond the arch I see a great celebration taking place. It is the dedication of a new building, and the U.S. Senator Fred Burton, the president of your class, is the speaker.

The scene changes, and a wedding is taking place in a lovely church. The bride and groom are Bettiejane Gunn and Henry Sands. The minister performing the ceremony is Moody Roberts.

Excitement prevails. A mill strike is taking place in Wentworth. The owners of mill, Hubert Parks and Edgar Cox, are rushing here and there trying to quiet the mob. They will succeed, for their cause is just.

A lecturer's platform. A familiar voice is pleading for a pension for old maids after sixty. Loise Stratton is presenting the cause.

The glaring lights of 42nd Street and Broadway make it hard for me to read the sign I see. Oh yes, Mary Frances Duke is staring in "The Ziegfield Follies." Her training began right here in Wentworth High School.

What is that I hear? It is a parade led by Oberia Carroll and Myrna Comer carrying placards which read, "Tax the Bachelors. A worthy cause, they claim."

In the West on a ranch I see Dorothy Dove and Reid Baker living happily filling their pockets with gold and their bodies with health gained from the great outdoors of the West.

A beauty parlor with the sign "Nothing Is Impossible" I see Evelyn Rakestraw as Manager, and seated under the hair dryer and permanent waving machine are Virginia Wall, who is trying to make herself beautiful for her husband and little boy, and Juanita Gann, who has to keep up her appearance as receptionist in her husband's office in Winston-Salem.

A syndicated column entitled "Advice to The Lovelorn" appears in the leading daily papers in the United States. Upon inquiring as to the writer, I have learned that it is Otis McCollum. He gained early experience by his affair with Sara Ann Collins in high school. Sara Ann is manager of a Day Nursery. Her devotion to children prompted her to take up this work.

In a large store I see a new style expert, very chic. It is Lois Carter of your class.

In Paris many buyers are grouped around the office of a great designer of millinery. Who is he? Oh, I see it is Roy Draper; and the buyers are Edgar Cox, Hubert Parks, and Melvin Strader.

All is quiet. A large white building houses a funeral establishment with a woman dressed in white working patiently; she is the head undertaker, Delores Boyd.

Look! I see in large headlines that Bonnell Evans, the great Broadway comedian, is going to take Jack Benny's place in a Jello program.

Again the scene changes. This time I perceive a lone little man, bald-headed, henpecked, miserable, standing before a Chautauqua schedule. He is easily recognized as Bobby Vernon.

Dorothy Thomas, teacher of Home Economics in Greensboro, is checking to be sure that all of her students' patterns are laid correctly.

Margie Dove and Katie Griffin are walking down the aisle arm in arm as they used to. Margie is a very prominent certified public accountant, and Katie was a court stenographer, but now is a good housewife for that certain one.

Betty Mitchell, who is a nursing Instructor in a big hospital in California has come back to North Carolina by special request to teach a course in Child Care. Among those taking the course there are four of her former class mates: Margie Dove, Dorothy Dove, Delores Boyd, and Lois Carter. These four are happily married and have homes of their own.

MEDITATION

As we come to the end of the high school road,
There are hearts which carry a heavy load.
We'll miss our school, teachers and all,
And we'll long to come back again in the fall.

We sang a song when things went wrong,
And smiled and tried to help others along;
We buckled down and never shirked,
Though lessons seemed the hardest of work.

As each one turns down the road marked career,
We will not sigh, nor will we fear;
We'll do the work assigned to do,
And, though it's tough, we will come through.

Now let us take our Father's hand,
And in his Holy presence stand;
We ask His blessings along the way,
As we live for Him from day to day.

-- Mary Frances Duke, Class Poet

CLASS WILL

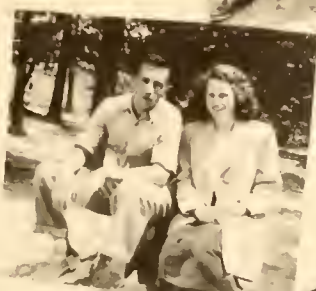

We, the Senior Class of '48, being of sound minds and failing memories for history dates, do bequeath in the following manner the following bequests to all the following groups and persons:

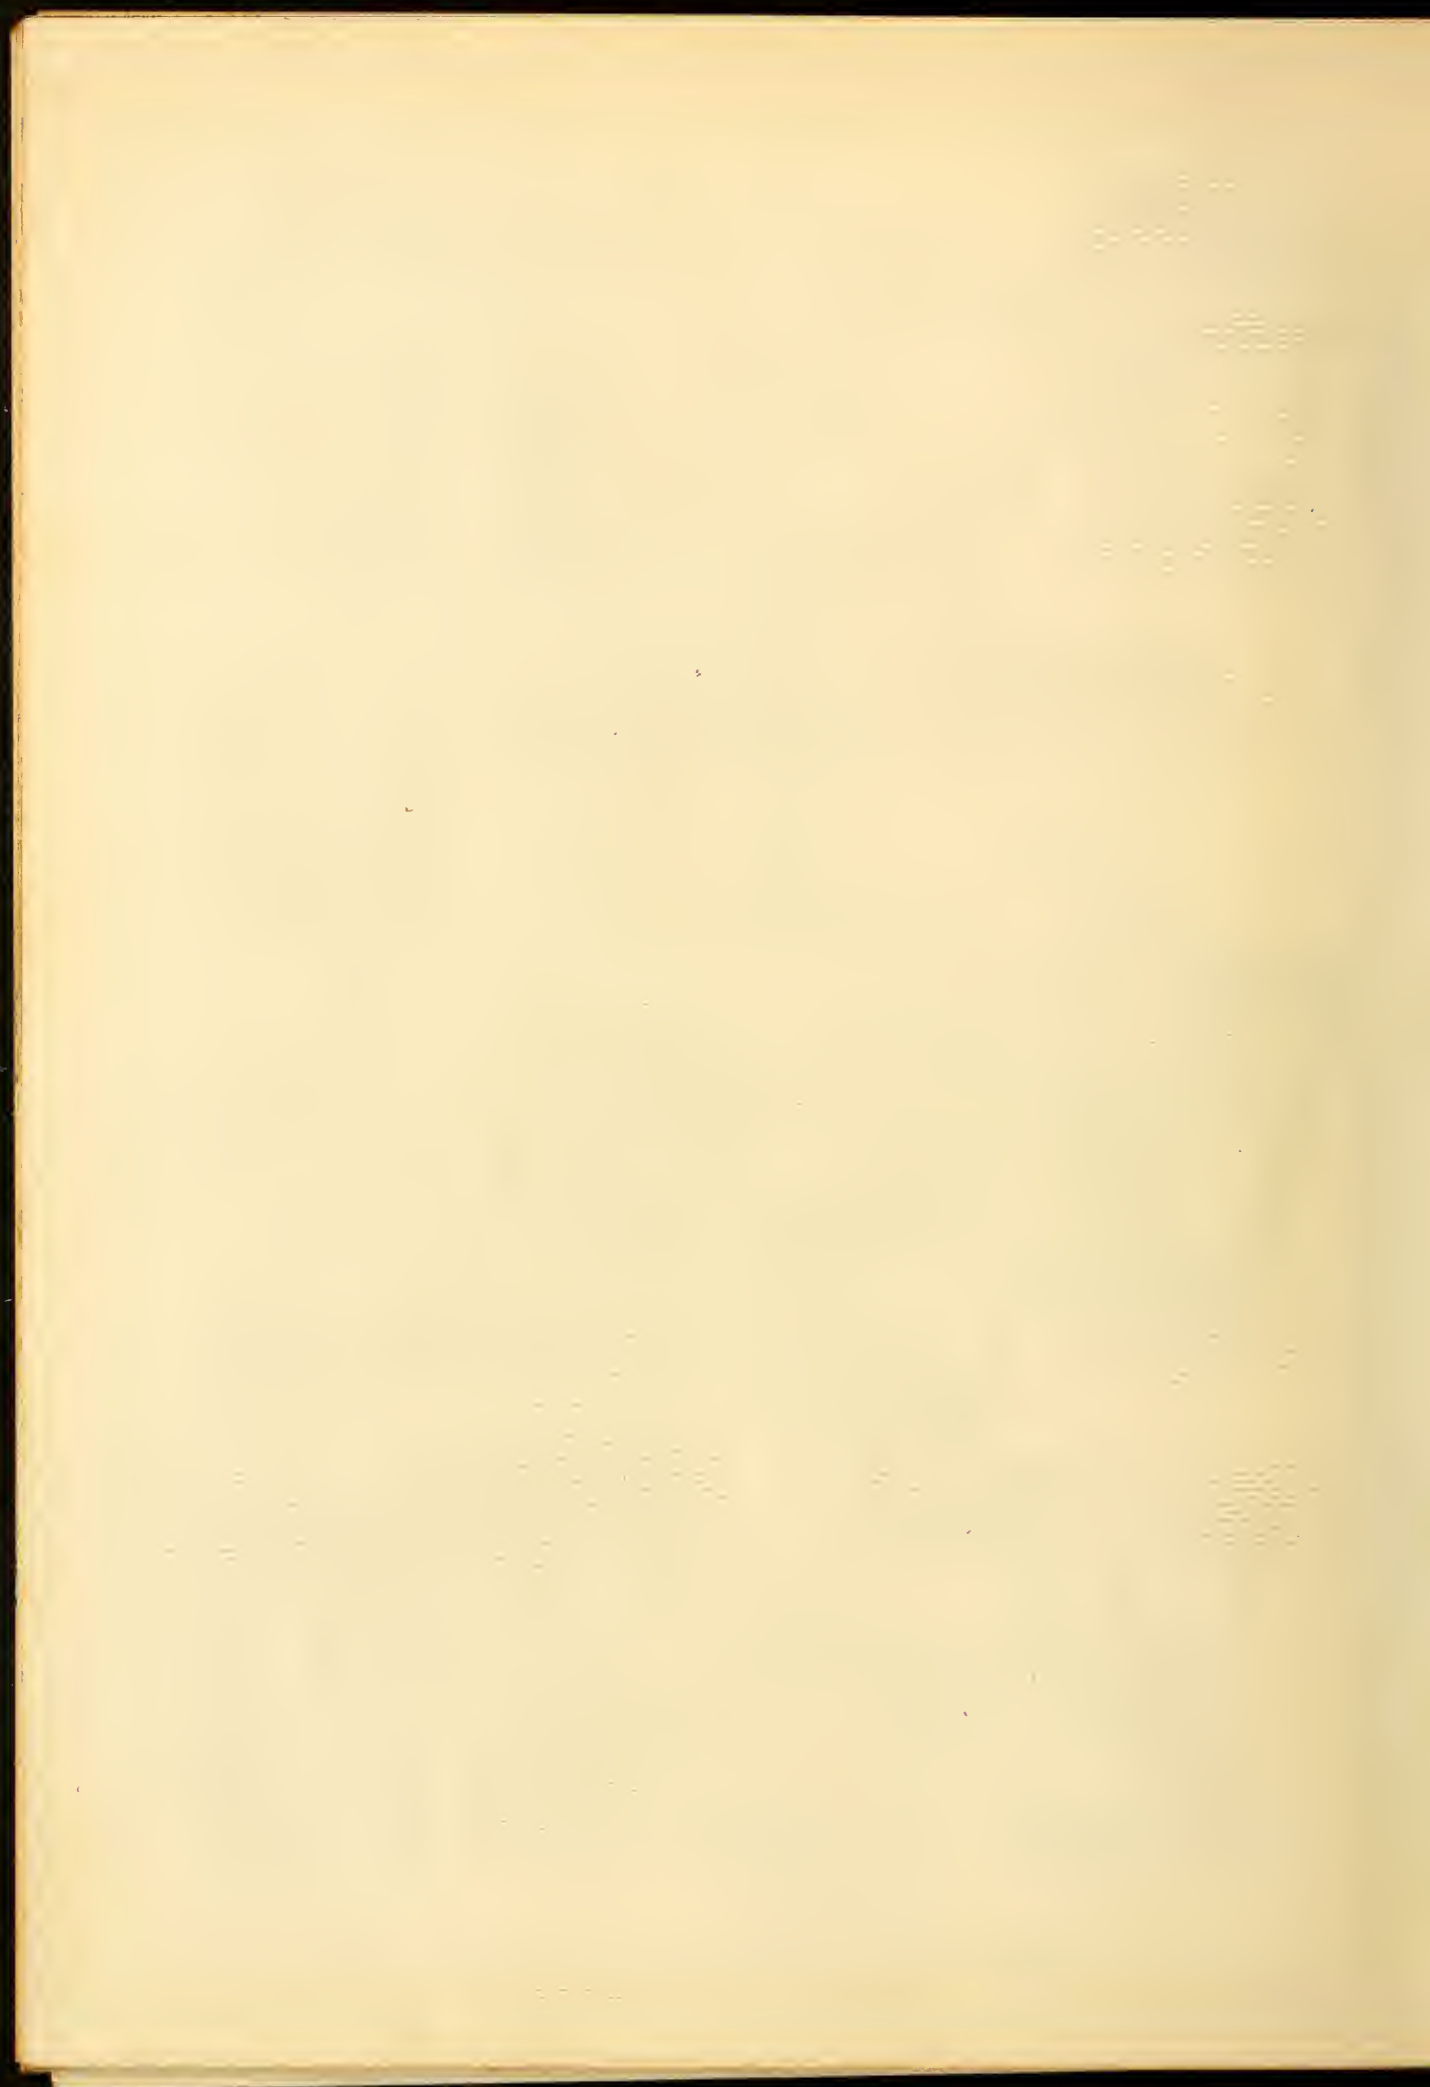

George Blum wills his curly hair to Mac Rankin.
Moody Roberts leaves his ability to run the school to Bill Rankin.
Fred Burton wills his loud voice to Lula Bell Hines.
Bonnell Evans leaves his ability to make all A's to Norman Alley.
Oberia Carroll leaves her flirtatious ways to Patsy Boyd.
Evelyn Rakestraw wills her bashful manner to Stella Durham.
Loise Stratton's voice goes to Reba Walsh.
Bettiejane Gunn leaves her studious ways to Lillie Wall.
Virginia Wall leaves her blow gum to Jimmy Corum.
Myrna Comer wills her athletic ability to Betsy Ray Wrenn.
Dorothy Dove leaves her silly ways to Betty Ruth Miller.
Delores Boyd wills her big feet to Nova Dean Troxler.
Bobby Vernon wills his long legs to Billy Roberts.
Reid Baker wills his fast driving to Everette Minter.
Otis McCollum leaves the waves in his hair to Jimmy Corum.
Edgar Cox leaves his ability to play the guitar to Everette Minter.
Henry Sands leaves his bus, 86, to Norman Alley.
Mary Frances Duke wills her singing ability to Nova Dean Troxler.
Lois Carter leaves her long dresses to Hazel Moore.
Hubert Parks leaves his driving ability to Edward Moore.
Sara Anne Collins leaves Otis McCollum to Betty Ruth Miller.
Dorothy Thomas wills her height to Patsy Boyd.
Melvin Strader leaves his mustache to Norman Alley.
Roy Draper wills his ability to play ball to Mallory Roach.
Katie Griffin wills her cute ways to Nova Dean Troxler.

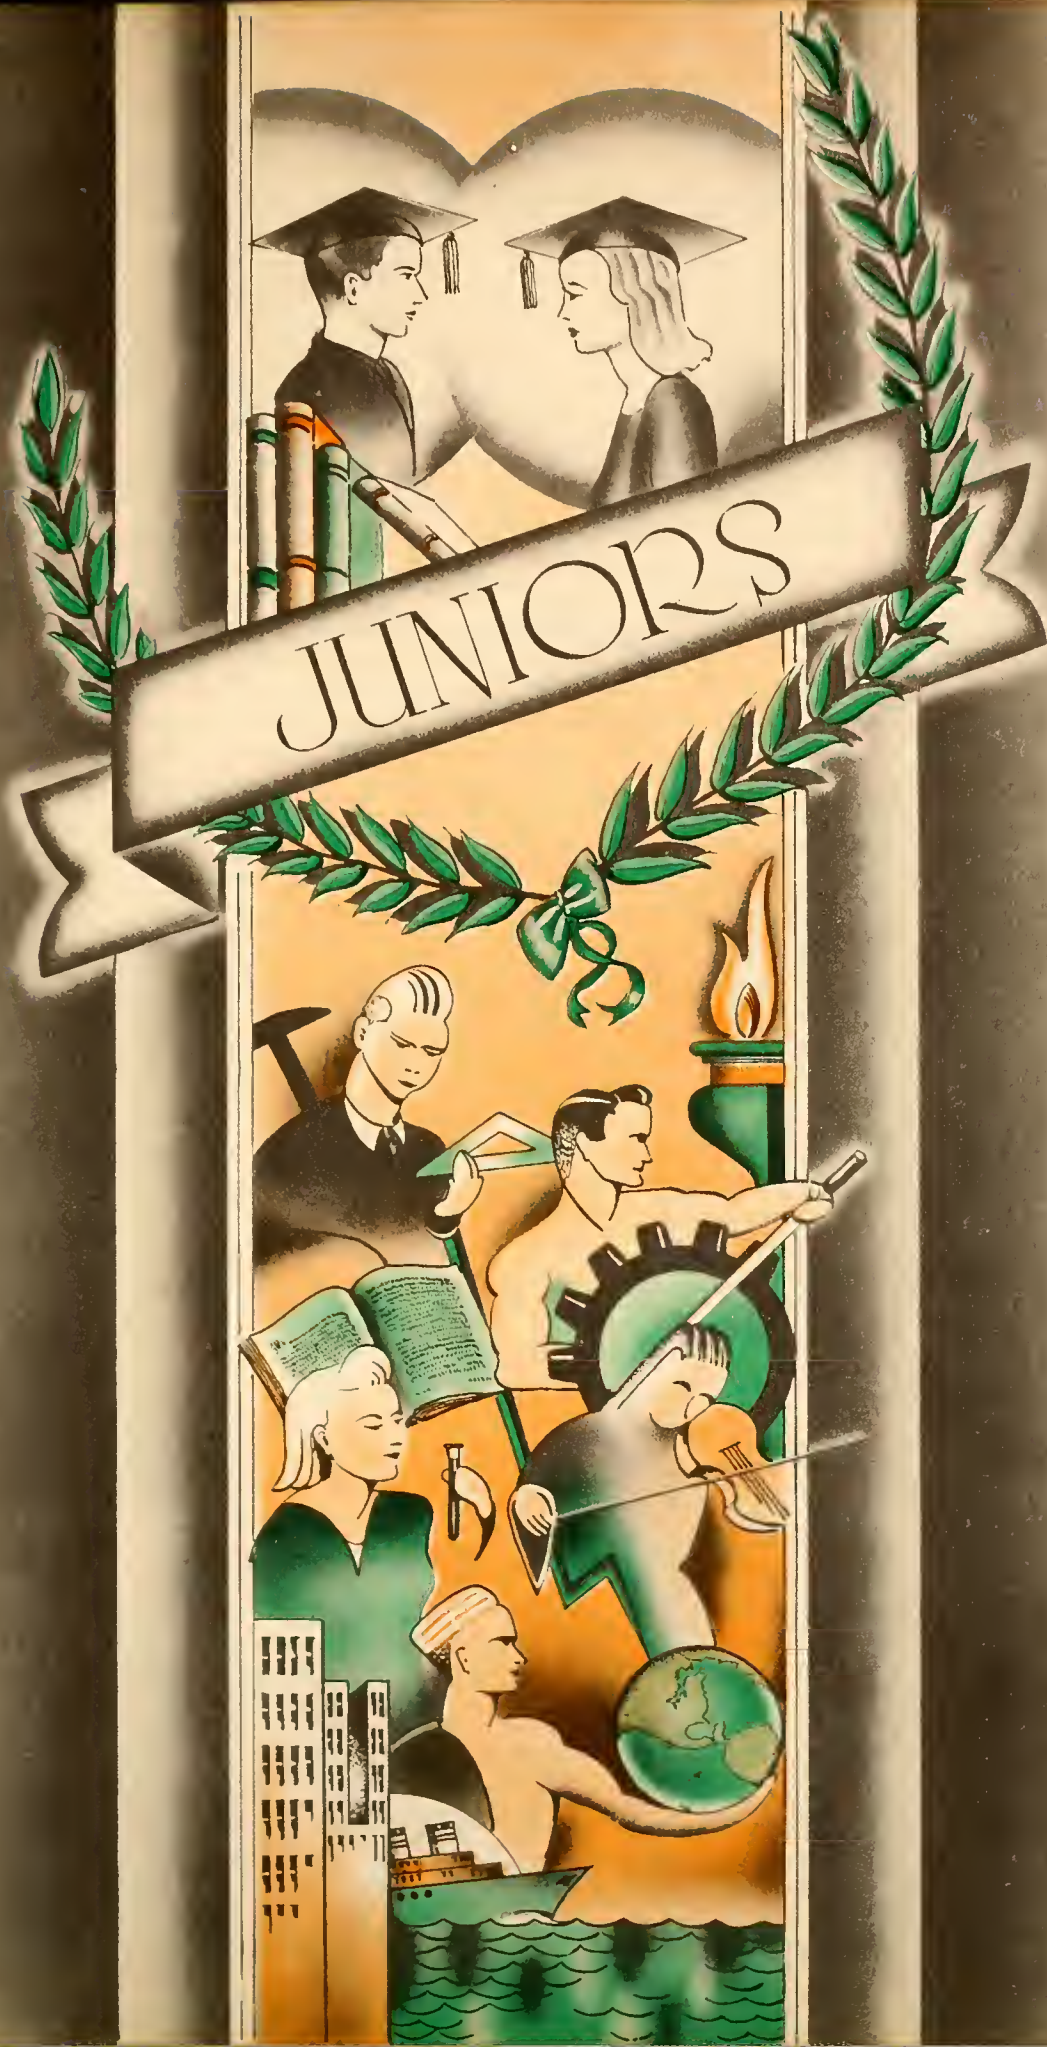

In witness whereof, we, the class of 1948, approve of these bequests and do this night set our hands and seal to this official document on the twenty-fifth day of May, nineteen hundred forty-eight, Wentworth, North Carolina.
